Host: Women in Biology Initiative

Wednesday
29.01.
11:30-12:30

WoBio is starting a transformation process and wants to open up to sexgender diversity. But what exactly is sexgender diversity?
What respectful terms are there and what do they mean?
Why do pronouns play such an important role?
Questions upon questions that many of us ask ourselves.
This lunch lecture by Persson Perry Baumgartinger kicks off the transformation process at Wobio, which he*they will accompany.
